PROCEEDINGS

Under the leadership of Professor Dr Fateh Muhammad Burfat, Vice Chancellor, University of Sindh Jamshoro; Pakistan Study Centre has started a series of conferences/seminars and training workshops. In order to commemorate the birth date of great leader, Pakistan Study Centre organized one day national seminar: “Quaid-i-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah: Leadership and Legacy of Political Wisdom” on the 144th birthday of Quaid-i-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah.

The Seminar was presided over by Professor Dr Fateh Muhammad Burfat, Vice Chancellor University of Sindh Jamshoro. Professor Dr Muhammad Yakub Mughul and Dr Jaipal Chhabira were guest speakers in the Seminar. The moot was called in session specifically to mark 144th birthday anniversary of the Quaid.

Professor Dr Fateh Muhammad Burfat, Vice Chancellor University of Sindh Jamshoro in his presidential address on the occasion said that we feel proud to practice Quaid's principles of Faith, Unity and Discipline.

Dr. Burfat observed that Quaid-i-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah was an ambassador of peace. His entire political struggle was for the creation of Pakistan.

The Vice Chancellor, Dr. Burfat said that the entire struggle of the Quaid-i-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah was a crucial factor in the making of Pakistan.

Professor Dr Shuja Ahmed Mahesar, Director Pakistan Study Centre University of Sindh Jamshoro, citing Professor Stanley Wolpert said that few individuals significantly altered the course of history. Fewer still modified the map of the world. Hardly anyone can be credited with creating a nation state. Muhammad Ali Jinnah did all three. Dr. Shuja Mahesar said that the emergence of Pakistan as a Nation State was not possible without the dynamic leadership and political wisdom of great leader.

Dr. Mahesar further quoted Michael Breecher saying that "had Quaid-i-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah died earlier; there would not have been Pakistan".

Professor Dr Muhammad Yakub Mughul eminent political scientist said that other political leaders in the world struggled for independence within states already in existence, the Quaid alone sought a separate homeland where none had existed. This he achieved almost single handed and constitutionally in the teeth of opposition.

Dr. Yakub Mughul narrated that: "Like other leaders, Jinnah for the Muslims was a symbol of change and transformation. He was not only symbol but a force that brought about a political revolution and changed the course of events and action in the history of the sub-continent. Once he was asked if he was writing history. 'No Sir, I am making history', was his prompt repartee”.

Dr. Yakub Mughul further said that in addition to this gigantic task of uniting and organizing Muslims of sub-continent, the Quaid-i-Azam had to fight on three fronts; against the British imperialists for the freedom of his homeland; against the rich and powerful Hindu community, who were well entrenched in the services and were far ahead of the Muslims in the spheres of education and politics, who were supporting Indian National Congress, lastly, against some black sheep among the Muslims, who played into the hands of the British and the Hindus to gain some personal benefits by creating dissensions in the ranks of the Muslim league.

Dr. Jaipal Chhabira also stressed the need for highlighting multiple latent facets of the Quaid's personality i.e. integrity, honesty, character, caliber, devotion, discipline and love for peace. Dr. Chhabira further described that the Quaid-i-Azam as the hero of Hindu-Muslim unity.

Towards the end, Prof. Dr. Zareen Abbasi, Dean Faculty of Social Sciences, University of Sindh Jamshoro presented vote of thanks and appreciated the speakers for their participation in the One Day National Seminar. She also thanked the learned speakers, scholars, guests and students, for their participation in the Seminar and for celebrating the 144th birthday of Quaid-i-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah which was great success. She particularly appreciated the contribution of the Director of the Centre for his hard-work and dedication.

The national seminar was moderated by Prof. Dr. Ghulam Ali Buriro. On this occasion, certificates of appreciation were received by Professor Dr. Muhammad Yakub Mughul, Dr. Jaipal Chhabira, Dr. Ghulam Ali Buriro and Mr. Muhammad Younis Keerio, student of the Pakistan Study Centre.
