In connection with Defence Day under the theme “We love Pakistan”, Pakistan Study Centre, University of Sindh, Jamshoro in collaboration with ISRA University Hyderabad and Rotary Club of Hyderabad Glaxy organized a health awareness event and a free medical camp for faculty members, students and communities of Jamshoro.

Sindh University Vice Chancellor Prof.Dr.Fateh Muhammad Burfat inaugurated the event.

Professor Dr. Shuja Ahmed Mahesar, Director Pakistan Study Centre welcomed the honourable Vice Chancellor and all other guests including the team of doctors and said that we are committed to maintain highest standards in teaching and research. Pakistan Study Centre is taking several steps to improve learning environment and to promote healthy life at campus. It arranges various awareness programmes about work related stress and other health issues so that workplace becomes safe and secure.

Dr. Burfat, in his address on the occasion, said that one of the major causes growing cardiovascular diseases in Pakistan was the lack of adequate awareness about those deadly ailments.

Prof. Dr. Fateh Muhammad Burfat further said that we remember with gratitude the martyrs of 1965 war who sacrificed their lives for the protection of territorial integrity of Pakistan. During the awareness seminar the team of doctors also talked about the causes of cardiovascular diseases including heart diseases.

Honourable Vice Chancellor appreciated the team for creating awareness among students about heart disease and problem of drug addiction. In order to promote volunteering and to recognize the hard work of students Certificates of Appreciation were awarded to the students who achieved HEC scholarships and the students who were involved in volunteering at Pakistan Study Centre.
