Prof. Dr. Ayaz Keerio informed the house about the Female quota reserved seats. Ten seats are reserved in each discipline within “jurisdiction” and two seats are reserved in each discipline “out of jurisdiction”. He further suggested that both should be merged and total 12 seats shall be reserved under the Female Quota. He further informed the house about incorporation of seat allocation under the disable quota, female quota, and other provinces quota as per HEC/Government guidelines.

Resolution: 9. It was resolved that the amendments proposed by Admission Committee-2022 meeting held on 01.09.2021 (Annexure-‘F’), be recommended and approved as under:

- i. Due to substantial reduction in the enrollment in various degree programs, the following Bachelor and Master Degree Programs shall be considered as General discipline rather than Quota oriented discipline: BS (Genetics), BS (Public Administration), BS (Physical Education, Health and Sport Sciences), BS (Geology), Master of Computer Science (MCS), Master of Public Administration (MPA), Master of Business Administration (MBA-morning program).
- ii. Admissions to all quota oriented degree programs are made according to the district-wise quota (merit be considered amongst the eligible applicants of the same district) rather than districts’ urban and rural quota. It was further discussed that due to the importance of this item, the house agreed with the recommendations of Admission committee-2022 and suggested to place the matter before the upcoming meeting of the Syndicate regarding the urban and rural quota, for consideration and final decision.
- iii. Uniform allocation of seats for out of jurisdiction districts: Fifteen (15) seats be reserved in each course of study (General Discipline) for the candidates from all districts of Larkana, Sukkur and Karachi divisions. Seats allocation for BS (Nutrition and Food Technology) will be the same as BS (Biochemistry).
- iv. Female quota seats: Ten (10) seats are reserved in each discipline within jurisdiction and two (02) seats are reserved in each discipline out of jurisdiction excluding BS (Electronic Engineering and Telecommunication Engineering). By merging both (jurisdiction and out of jurisdiction seats) now in total Twelve (12) seats are reserved under “Female Quota” in each discipline excluding BS (Electronic Engineering and Telecommunication Engineering).

Item No: 10. To consider the revised fees structure proposed by Fees Review Committee-2022.

Resolution: 10. It was resolved that the revised fees structure proposed by Fee Review Committee-2022 (Annexure-‘G’), be approved.

Item No: 11. To consider the appointment of members on the Board of Studies, Department of Urdu, under clause 4(2)(iii) of the First Statutes appended to the University of Sindh Act, 1972.

Resolution: 11. It was resolved that the following two faculty members be appointed as members on the Board of Studies, Department of Urdu, under clause 4(2)(iii) of the First Statutes appended to the University of Sindh Act, 1972 for a period of three years with effect from the date of first meeting.

1. Ms. Abida Huma, Assistant Professor, Department of Urdu, University of Sindh, Jamshoro.
2. Dr. Shazra Shar, Incharge & Assistant Professor, Department of Urdu, University of Sindh, Jamshoro.

Item No: 12. To consider the option for merging the Department of Early Childhood and Elementary Education (ECE&EE) into the Department of Educational Management & Supervision.

Discussion: The Vice Chancellor informed the house that the Faculty of Education offers degree programs in its various morning and evening programs. The expenditure on evening programs is for more than the income of the programs. This might be due to the may be allowed. In the first instance the degree program would be started at the Centre of Pure and Applied Geology.
